How to put your box together

1. Buy a photo storage box (no shoeboxes)

Photo storage boxes are very sturdy, work great and often come with fun designs. They can be found at craft stores like Jo-ann Fabrics and Michaels.

2. Fill the box with the ESSENTIAL items from the list and at least 7 items from the EXTRAS list.

3. Tape a handwritten note to the inside lid of the box that includes an encouraging message such as:

“You are special”

“You are cared about”

“You matter”

“You are important”

“Made for you with love”

Please, no sealed messages or religious language.

4. Cut out Care Box label (on the back pages of this booklet), identify the gender and age bracket that your box corresponds with and tape it to the narrow side of the box.

5. Place a rubber-band around your box.

6. Contact Mandy Neill, MaNeill@ugm.org, to determine a drop off time and location. Feel free to contact them if you have any questions. (Please do not drop off directly to DSHS).

HERE'S THE SCOOP...

Many children coming into foster care must wait for hours in a Child Welfare office while a social worker calls to find them a suitable placement. This is usually a time of high anxiety for children as they've recently been removed from their home and are being moved to a new, unknown foster home.

The notion of a Care Box is a simple one. While the child is waiting, a social worker gives the child a box of age appropriate items to occupy their time while in the office. It will also be a box they can carry and take with them into their new foster home. Since many children enter their new foster homes with very few belongings, the psychological importance of owning nice possessions cannot be underestimated.

Making a Care Box is a simple way to comfort a foster child. It's also a great way to involve your own family in caring for less fortunate kids in your area.
